

San Bernardino County Flood Control District

Estimate of Surplus Material (as of July 1, 2008)

Facility	City	Quantity	Description
San Antonio Heights *	Upland	200,000 cy	In stockpile (FILL DIRT)
Hillside Basin *	Rancho Cuc	20,000 cy	In stockpile (ROCKY DIRT)
Deer Dam * (provisional)	Rancho Cuc	50,000 cy	In stockpile (ROCKY)
San Sevaine Basin #5 *	Rancho Cuc	100,000 cy	In basin (VERY SILTY)
Waterman Spreading Grounds *	San Bdno	15,000± tons	¼ to 4 ton riprap in stockpile
Waterman Spreading Grounds *	San Bdno	40,000 cy	In stockpile (FILL DIRT)
Patton Basin *	Highland/S.B.	3,000 cy	In stockpile (FILL DIRT)
Seven Oaks Dam	County area, East of Highland	7,500 tons	1 to 8 ton riprap in stockpile
Mojave River*	Victorville	3,500 cy	In stockpile (VERY SANDY)
Donnell Basin	29 Palms	75,000± cy	Final Basin Grading

Note: The District makes no guarantee as to the actual quantities available or the quality of material. The District will not accept applications for material removal for locations other than those listed above. The District reserves the right to select the permittee(s) that best meet the needs of the District's operation schedule. All Soil Removal applications must include a requested quantity, an expected rate of removal, and a proposed start date.

Any facility with an asterisk () denotes that no screening will be permitted at this site.*

Maps with facility locations are available at 825 E. Third Street, Room 108, San Bernardino.

For appointments to field review specific areas, please contact Brad Mecham at (909) 387-7808.